Hague, May 25.

'WE know not well what to ſay or believe touching the Negociation of Peace between Spain and this State, ſo ſubject to Variation is that Affair. 'Twas affirmed not long ago, that the Court of Madrid had deſiſted from their Pretentions for the Princeſs Urſini, and that the Peace between Spain and us would ſoon be concluded by the Mediation of the Court of France: But we are now informed that King Philip perſiſts in demanding the Principality for that Princeſs, and that the Britiſh Court continue diſpoſed to uſe their Intereſt with their High Mightyneſſes, as well for that Affair, as particularly for the Guarantie of what has been ſtipulated at Utrecht in favour of the Duke of Savoy, now King of Sicily.

'Baron Heems, the Emperour's Miniſter, was Yeſterday in Conference with the Deputies of the States, concerning the Spaniſh Netherlands. The Deputies acquainted him, that their High Mightyneſſes are very much inclined to come to an Agreement with his Imperial Majeſty; and it that being neceſſary to go by ſome certain Plan in this Affair, they were of Opinion that the Treaty of Barrier between the Queen of Great-Britain and their High Mightyneſſes, might ſerve for that End. Baron Heems anſwered, that he would acquaint his Imperial Majeſty with this Propoſition, and would wait for what Determination he ſhall be pleaſed to take upon it: In the mean while he told the Deputies, that he had received Order from the Court of Vienna to aſſure the States, that the Emperour was concerned to hear that they had taken Umbrage at the marching of ſome of his Troops towards the Low-Countries; the rather becauſe his Imperial Majeſty has nothing more at Heart than their Safety and the living in a good Underſtanding with their High Mightyneſſes: And then the Baron took Occaſion to deſire them to conſider, that it is time for them to nominate ſome Perſon of Probity and who may be acceptable to the Emperour, to concert with the Imperial Court what may conduce to thoſe great Ends.

'General Obdam died here Yeſterday.

''Tis talked the Duke d' Oſſuna will ſpeedily be recalled by the King his Maſter.

'The Miniſters of the Proteſtant Potentates of Germany have had another Conference with the Earl of Strafford, touching the Abolition of the 4th Article of the Treaty of Ryſwick. That Miniſter repreſented to them, that the Proteſtant Religion in the Empire is in more Danger than ever, ſince their Principals had put their Grievances into the Emperour's Hands to be decided in the Congreſs at Baden; there being Ground to apprehend, not only that this Affair will not be preſſed as it ought at the ſaid Congreſs by the Emperour's Plenipotentiaries, but that they will endeavour to ſtifle it, unleſs the chief of the Proteſtant Princes of the Empire ſend Miniſters thither, to inſiſt ſtrenuouſly on the ſaid Abolition, conformably to the Promiſes given them by the Emperour about it at his Election and ſince: That her Britannick Majeſty will concur thereto with all her Power, by the Miniſter whom her Majeſty will ſend thither, the rather becauſe the Court of France have declared more than once that they will not oppoſe it.

''Tis ſaid, that upon the Repreſentations made by the Deputies of our Admiralties, 'tis under Deliberation to order new Men of War to be built, in the Room of thoſe which have been ſold or are grown unſerviceable; to the End this State may be able to ſend out a ſtrong Fleet to Sea upon any Occaſion; and in exchange to reduce yet lower the Number of our Land-Forces, aſſoon as the Treaty of Barrier ſhall be concluded with the Court of Vienna; it being taken for granted, that the Emperour, according to his known Prudence and Vigilance, will provide more effectually for the ſecurity of the Netherlands, than Spain has formerly done.

'Letters from Berlin of the 15th Inſtant adviſe, that the King of Pruſſia (who came thither the Day before, there to paſs the Holydays) is much taken up with reviewing his Troops which lie diſperſed in his Dominions; that he would make an end of that Review in the adjacent Provinces the Beginning of next Month; and deſigns to go before the End of June to Weſtphalia and the Country of Cleves, to view his Troops there likewiſe: 'Twas talked his Majeſty would alſo take this Occaſion to make a Tour into Holland, but that if he does, 'twill be intirely incognito, with a very ſmall Retinue, and that he will not be above 5 or 6 Weeks abſent from his Capital; ſo that 'twas not likely any foreign Miniſter would follow him, his own being to ſtay behind at Berlin. The Count de Rotenbourg and Baron Sparre continued at Berlin: 'Twas ſaid they had made new Propoſitions, but there was Reaſon to judge they will not be more hearkened to than the former.

'There are Letters from Leipſick, which ſay a Marriage is as good as agreed between the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel and the Dutcheſs-Dowager of Saxen-Weiſſenfels.
